
HOW ONE INDIAN F&B GROUP HIT RS 120 CR REVENUE, THEN RAISED RS 532 CR FROM A FOREIGN INVESTOR.

SWIPE TO SEE WHO IT IS, AND THE 5 COST HABITS
BEHIND IT

THEY BOOTSTRAPPED TO RS 120 CR FIRST.

Popo Global runs Smash Guys, The Pizza Bakery and Paris Panini. It reported Rs 120 crore revenue in FY25 with no external funds.

SOURCE: YOURSTORY, JUN 2025

01

ONE HERO PRODUCT PER BRAND

Sourdough pizza at Pizza Bakery, sandwiches at Paris Panini, smash burgers at Smash Guys.

02

SHARED KITCHENS, SHARED
INGREDIENTS

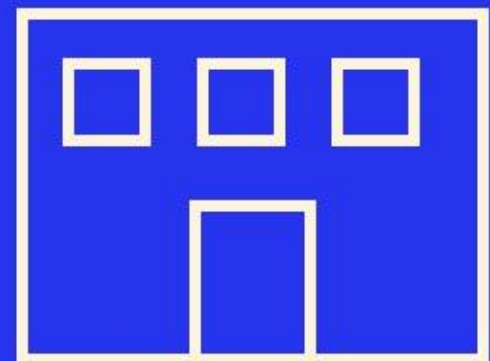

Paris Panini sits near most Pizza Bakery outlets, sharing storage and management. A 20,000 sq ft central kitchen backs quality.

03

TEST IN A CLOUD KITCHEN BEFORE DINE-IN

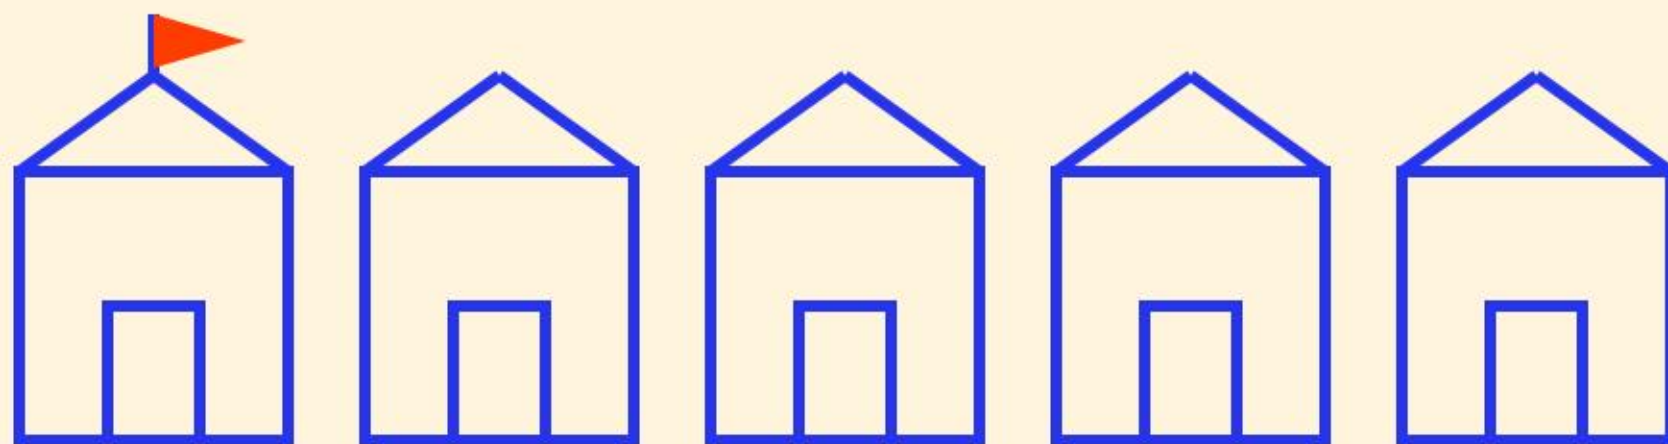

Popo tests the waters with delivery-only kitchens, then invests in a physical outlet.

04

OWN EVERY OUTLET. NO FRANCHISE.

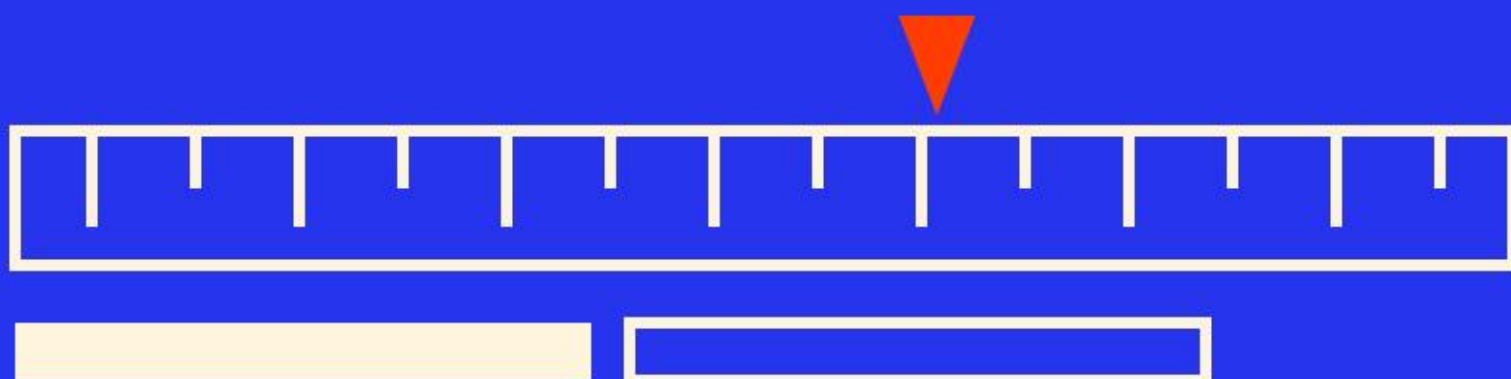

The co-founder said all outlets are company-owned, with no external investors or franchise partners (as of Jun 2025).

05

MEASURE THE PLATE, TRACK THE STOCK

Topping counters follow set ingredient measures, and the founder gets real-time low-stock alerts.

ACROSS 3 BRANDS

40+

OUTLETS AT THE TIME OF THE ROUND

SOURCE: INDIAN STARTUP NEWS, 12 SEP 2026

FIRST OUTSIDE MONEY,
SEPT 2026

RS 532 CR

From Artal Asia (Invus Group), for a significant minority stake. Source: Moneycontrol.

RUN TIGHT. BUY
SMART. START WITH COSTS.

GO TO HOSPIVERSE.IN

AND REGISTER FOR FREE